The C.B. file no 191-191-S[S] 1&2 relating to the appointment of Mr. M. Rama Rao as Special magistrate is put up. The members final note in that file explains his position in the cadre of Asst Comrs before his appointment as Special magistrate

Mr. Rama Rao requests that the revised scale of pay of Special magistrates may in his case be specially given effect to from 15th July 1922 as in the case of Asst Comrs as he was also in the grade Rs 250 - 50/3 - 450 before being posted as Special magistrate.

in the case of officers who had been Assistant Commrs or Civil Court Judges before they were taken in the Magistrates' line (at a time when this was not anticipated) it has caused personal hardship

Mr Rama Rao must be considered to have lost something in this way for having elected to be a magistrate instead of an assistant Commr. when a place in the latter cadre was open to him

As it may not be possible to show in his case a special concession the best course seems to be to reverse the order giving effect to the reorganisation of Magistrates as from this latter order effect from the same date as in the case of Ass.t Comrs

If this general order cannot be passed the request as regards Mr Rama Rao personally deserve to be considered separately on its own merits

Mr. M. Rama Rao's name had been included in the list of acting Asst. Commrs. from 2nd Sept 1916 to ~~10th May 1918~~ 8th Jany 1919, when he was continued as Principal, Police Training School, on Rs 250 - 50/3 - 450, the grade sanctioned in G.O. No J. 4609-18/Pol 234-15-10 dated 10th May 1918. This appointment, which was of the grade of a Supdt. of Police, was treated as outside the cadre of Asst. Commissioners and Mr Rama Rao's name was therefore removed from the cadre of Asst. Comrs Mr. Rama Rao was allowed to count service for purposes of increment from 10th May 1918 Prior to 10th May 1918, Mr Rama Rao's permanent place was that of the Principal, Police Training School, on a pay of Rs 200

On May 1921, when the Principalship of the Police Training School was reduced to the grade of an Asst. Supdt. of Police (Pay Rs 200) with a duty allowance of Rs 50 Mr. Rama Rao whose substantive pay was Rs 300 in the grade 250-50/3-450 was proposed to be placed in the list of Asst. Comrs. who were then Provisionally Permanent below the Officer who got Rs 250 just before he got that pay, the excess of this pay over Rs 250 being treated as absorbable personal allowance to Mr. Rama Rao's representation that he might be

I find from a perusal of the records in file no 191-19 that it was resolved in Council on 25/8/21 that Mr Ramachandra who was then drawing Rs 300 in the grade of Rs 250 - 50/3 - 450 as Personal Assistant to the Collector should be treated as Supernumerary person till he was given a regular vacancy. This resolution was subsequently modified so as to apply only to a post carrying a pay of Rs 300 in the grade of Rs 200 - 50/3 - 400. This case has therefore to be treated in the same way as that of the Special Magistrates and he cannot claim to be given the benefit which was accorded to the Asst Comrs.
